

Celebrate 2012 with CloudTEN Events

When London won the Olympics, 2012 was a mere speck on the horizon...and now suddenly our BIG YEAR has arrived! Not only do we have the Olympics, it's also the Queen's Jubilee - so there's a lot to celebrate & plenty of themes for great footfall driving events!

Queen's Jubilee Celebration:

The Queen's Diamond Jubilee taking place across the weekend of 2nd – 5th June... and with an extra day's holiday, what better way to celebrate than with some Royal themed events! Create a footfall-driving regal atmosphere in your shopping centre with Great British bunting, a Royal treasure hunt, Crown decorating and Commemorative Mug & Bag workshops or perhaps...

A Great British Garden Party: Join in the Royal festivities by holding a Great British Garden Party, with tea & cakes served inside a faux garden with white picket fence, turf & planting boxes full of flowers, a butler, a string quartet and even a Queen look-a-like....plus the opportunity for your retailers to show off their Great British products!

London 2012 Olympics: The 2012 Olympics & Paralympics, taking place between July and September, offer a once in a life time opportunity to celebrate the games being held on British soil. What better way to show our British athletes some support by organising some sensational sporting themed events including a 'Mini-Olympics', retailer Sporting Challenges & Multi-cultural activities to celebrate the bringing all together of all the nations across the globe.....
